

Breath of Twilight

Short Synopsis

Nowhere to turn, Angela commits the unthinkable. However her near-death experience triggers a memory that could solve her worldly problems.

Director's Statement

I first started in this business by working as a stand-in and an actor. Putting the knowledge I've gained from working with others, both cast and crew, I use the medium of short films to hone my craft in preparation of someday shooting a feature. To this date, I have directed two short films, written five and produced seven. – Mark Kochanowicz
